

Web Club #4

For Apple computers:

Open the WebClub folder.

Click once on WebClub_01.html

Open the Edit menu and click on Copy "WebClub_01.html".

Click an empty space in the Web Club folder.

Open the Edit menu and click on Paste item.

Find the new file "WebClub_01 copy" and rename it: (Your name).html

This new html file is your own web page. Open it in a browser and in TextEdit.

Now you're going to copy items from other web pages into yours. For this you need two TextEdit windows open.

Click somewhere in the TextEdit window to make sure it is "active".

Open the File menu, click "Open", and open "WebClub_04.html".

Now you should have two TextEdit windows open.

In WebClub_04.html find the <body> tag and, two lines below that, highlight the whole line starting with "<h1><a href". The <a tag with an href creates a link to another web page.

With that line highlighted, open the Edit menu and click "Copy".

Now click in the TextEdit window with your web page, click in the space between <body> and </body> to put the cursor there.

Open the Edit menu and click "Paste".

Reload your page in the browser and you should see a link to another website. Click on it and you should go to a website called "Running Blind". Scroll down to the bottom and check out the photo.

Open WebClub_04.html and have fun with it. Try all the sounds in folder "soundFiles" and videos in folder "videos".

For Windows computers:

Open the WebClub folder.

Right-Click on WebClub_01.html

In the pop-up menu click on "Copy".

Right-Click an empty space in the Web Club folder.

In the pop-up menu click on "Paste".

Find the new file "WebClub_01-copy" and rename it: (Your name).html

This new html file is your own web page. Open it in a browser and in Notepad.

Now you're going to copy items from other web pages into yours. For this you need two Notepad windows open.

Right-click the Notepad icon at the bottom of the window.

From the pop-up menu click Notepad

Now you should have two Notepad windows open.

In the new, empty one, open the File menu and click "Open".

At the bottom, change "Text Documents" to "All Files".

Navigate to the WebClub folder and open "WebClub_04.html"

In WebClub_04.html find the <body> tag and, two lines below that, highlight the whole line starting with "<h1><a href". The <a tag with an href creates a link to another web page.

With that line highlighted, open the Edit menu and click "Copy".

Now click in the Notepad window with your web page, click in the space between <body> and </body> to put the cursor there.

Open the Edit menu and click "Paste".

Open the File menu and click "Save".

Reload your page in the browser and you should see a link to another website. Click on it and you should go to a website called "Running Blind". Scroll down to the bottom and check out the photo.

Open WebClub_04.html and have fun with it. Try all the sounds in folder "soundFiles" and videos in folder "videos".
